

Economic Cartoons

Study this cartoon and review the section entitled “What Are Taxes?” beginning on page 359 before answering the questions below.

Copyright © 1997 by Austin-American-Statesman. Reprinted with permission of Universal Syndicate. All rights reserved.

1. What political party does the speaker on the television belong to? How can you tell?

_____

_____

2. Synthesizing Information (a) What is the proportional, or flat, tax? (b) How does it differ from the income tax Americans now pay? _____

_____

_____

3. What do economists say are the four characteristics of a good tax? _____

_____

_____

4. Drawing Inferences How does the elephant on TV suggest that the flat tax has the good tax characteristics of economy and simplicity? _____

_____

_____

5. Recognizing Points of View What characteristic of a good tax does the cartoonist think the flat tax lacks? Explain your answer. _____

_____

_____